Rationale

- (1) The MS&AD Insurance Group (the “MS&AD Group”) is a major non-life insurance group having Mitsui Sumitomo Insurance Company, Limited (“MSI”) and Aioi Nissay Dowa Insurance Company, Limited (“ADI”) at the core, as well as Mitsui Sumitomo Aioi Life Insurance Co., Ltd., Mitsui Sumitomo Primary Life Insurance Co., Ltd. and others, under the umbrella of insurance holding company MS&AD Insurance Group Holdings, Inc. (“MS&AD HD”). With the merger of the two core companies scheduled for April 2027, the MS&AD Group intends to increase the earnings capacity, productivity and competitiveness through the integration of brands, human resources, customer bases, data, knowhow and financial bases. Overseas, it has many insurance companies including MS Amlin Underwriting Limited, Lloyd’s major syndicate, and has been building a business portfolio with risk and geographic diversification. JCR deems the MS&AD Group’s creditworthiness to be equivalent to the rating of AA+ based on the evaluation of the solid business base in the domestic market, stable earnings capacity backed by the well-diversified business portfolio, strong capital adequacy, the level of ERM adoption, etc.
- (2) The MS&AD Group enjoys strong market position and competitiveness. MSI has a solid position in the domestic market on the strength of its relations with the Mitsui Group and the Sumitomo Group, and so does ADI, leveraging its relations with the Toyota Group and Nippon Life Group. In the overseas business, the MS&AD Group has been working to expand stable earnings while maintaining a diversified business portfolio especially for Europe, Americas, Lloyd’s, reinsurance and Asia, which is driving its growth. In North America, where it had been rather underrepresented, it is expanding the business base, with a focus on the specialty insurance sector, as part of which it completed its relatively large-scale investment in W. R. Berkley Corporation (“WRB”) in March 2026. It maintains a strong appetite for strategic investments, constantly exploring opportunities for bolt-on M&A deals, which complement existing businesses. As its capacity for growth investments appears to remain high on the back of the accelerated sales of strategic shareholdings, JCR will keep an eye on the direction of the future growth investment strategy. In the Toyota retail business, it is working on the differentiation of products and services by combining advanced technology in telematics auto insurance with the Toyota Group’s customer base.
- (3) The MS&AD Group has relatively high and stable earnings capacity. It has been achieving profit growth driven by improved profitability across the business segments, despite changes in the operating environment, including frequent natural disasters, rising inflation and interest rate hikes. In the domestic non-life insurance business, net premiums written have improved thanks to growth in specialty insurance products, especially for packaged products targeting SMEs, on top of the effective rate revisions in automobile and fire insurance. The expense ratios of the two core companies are beginning to improve, driven by such factors as cost reductions with the use of digital technologies and AI and also through business process reforms. JCR will watch whether the realization of business expense reductions triggered by the merger will help further boost profitability. In the domestic life insurance business, the MS&AD Group is striving to increase product development capabilities and asset management expertise through collaboration with U.S.-based asset management firm Barings LLC, in which it completed the acquisition of an 18% equity interest in May 2026, and Barings's parent, Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company, a major U.S. life insurance company. JCR will watch whether the MS&AD Group can achieve profit growth by, for instance, expanding synergies and improving capital efficiency in terms of asset management. In the overseas business, profits are on an upward trend, driven by such factors as the expansion of underwriting, primarily in Europe and North America, and constant rate increases. Attention will be paid to see whether the expansion of the North American specialty insurance business, including partnerships with WRB, will drive future profit growth.

- (4) The MS&AD Group's capital adequacy is strong. ESR is at a level where sufficient soundness can be maintained even under certain stress conditions, and its sensitivity to changes in the market environment is contained. The MS&AD Group is aiming to improve both earnings capacity and capital efficiency while maintaining financial soundness by adopting ERM as the foundation of its management framework and managing capital, risks and returns in an integrated manner. Even though risks it faces are becoming more diverse and complex with the expansion of the overseas business, it demonstrates a high level of ERM maturity, as evidenced by its management approach that aligns business plans, product strategy, asset management policies, underwriting and reinsurance policies, etc. on a global basis. JCR views that the MS&AD Group will continue appropriately controlling the balance between business investments and shareholder returns under a disciplined capital policy into the future.

Issuer: MS&AD Insurance Group Holdings, Inc.

MS&AD HD is the insurance holding company of the MS&AD Group. JCR deems its long-term issuer rating to be at the same level as the MS&AD Group's creditworthiness. Double leverage ratio has been staying below a certain level, and, given the financial management policy, etc., stability in cash flow balance will likely be maintained into the future. Hence, the rating does not reflect the structural subordination of a holding company.

Issuer: Mitsui Sumitomo Insurance Company, Limited

MSI is a core company of the MS&AD Group, with MS&AD HD holding 100% voting rights. JCR deems its long-term issuer rating to be at the same level as the MS&AD Group's creditworthiness. It operates the global insurance and financial services businesses, building upon the huge domestic customer base centered on the Mitsui Group and the Sumitomo Group. It has a solid and extensive business base, spanning widely from large corporations to individuals, thereby establishing a solid position in the domestic market.

Issuer: Aioi Nissay Dowa Insurance Company, Limited

ADI is a core company of the MS&AD Group, with MS&AD HD holding 100% voting rights. JCR deems its long-term issuer rating to be at the same level as the MS&AD Group's creditworthiness. With strength in partnerships with the Toyota Group and the Nippon Life Group, It has a solid and extensive business base, spanning widely from large corporations to individuals, thereby establishing a solid position in the domestic market. In automobile insurance, it excels in flexibly offering products and services that meet diversifying needs by, for instance, developing insurance products utilizing telematics technology ahead of other companies.

The version of the procedure or methodology used to determine the credit rating; as Required by Paragraph (a)(1)(ii)(B) of Rule 17g-7

- Please see the news release. If the credit rating is a private rating, please see the report for private rating.

The Main Assumptions and Principles used in Constructing the Procedures and Methodologies used to Determine the Credit Rating as Required by Paragraph (a)(1)(ii)(C) of Rule 17g-7

- The credit rating methodology assumes, in principle, to be applied to assess the likelihood of a given debt payment in light of its issuer's condition and business environment, etc. in the relevant future. There is certain limitation, however, in the time horizon that the rating foresees.
- The credit rating methodology assumes, in principle, that the factors posted in the below are particularly important for such likelihood to be determined, and that the rating determination is made by evaluating each of them not only quantitatively but also employing qualitative analyses.

A) Business Bases

The likelihood of a given debt payment is highly conditional to its issuer's business bases - how they can be maintained/ expanded into the future and thereby secure earnings and cash flows in adequacy and in a sustainable way.

B) Financial Grounds and Asset Quality

The likelihood of debt payment is highly dependent on the degree of the issuer's indebtedness and loss absorption capacity in terms of equity capital. Also notable is that a financial institution might see a significant loss of financial grounds as a result of changes in value of the assets under its possession.

C) Liquidity Positions

The likelihood of debt payment is highly dependent on the adequacy of the issuer's cash and other sources of repayment (liquidity positions).

D) Related Parties' Status and Stance of Support/ Assistance for the Issuer

The likelihood of debt payment is affected one way or the other by the issuer's related parties such as parent company, subsidiary, guarantor, and the government of the issuer's business domicile, etc. - by their own conditions and/ or position of support/ assistance for the issuer.

E) Order of Seniority in Debt Payment

The likelihood of debt payment can be different between given debts of the same issuer. The likelihood of debt payment for an individual debt is dependent on the issuer's discretion, and/ or its rank relative to other debts of the same issuer in the order of seniority in principal/ interest payment which is determined by design as financial product or by laws, etc.

The Potential Limitations of the Credit Rating as Required by Paragraph (a)(1)(ii)(D) of Rule 17g-7

- The credit rating herewith presented by JCR is its summary opinion with regard to the likelihood of given debt payment and hence not necessarily a perfect representation of such likelihood. The credit rating is not intended to estimate the probability of default or the loss on given default, either.
- The objective of the credit rating herewith presented does not include any concerns other than the likelihood of debt payment, such as risks of price changes, market liquidity, etc.
- The credit rating herewith presented is necessary to be reviewed along with possible changes of the issuer of rated objects in its business performance and/ or circumstances which include regulatory environment, and hence subject to possible alteration.

Information on the Uncertainty of the Credit Rating as Required by Paragraph (a)(1)(ii)(E) of Rule 17g-7

- The information used for the determination of credit rating as herewith presented is obtained by JCR from the issuer of rated objects and other sources that JCR trusts in terms of accuracy and reliability but possibly contains errors due to human, non-human or other causes. Consequently, the credit rating determined on the grounds of such information does not constitute, explicitly or implicitly, any representation or warrant of JCR on the information itself or any consequences of its use in terms of accuracy, relevance, timeliness, wholeness, market value, or usefulness for any specific purposes.

Use of Due Diligence Services of a Third Party in Taking the Rating Action as Required by Paragraph (a)(1)(ii)(F) of Rule 17g-7

- There is no use of any third-party due diligence service in the determination of the credit rating herewith presented.

Use of Servicer or Remittance Reports to Conduct Surveillance of the Credit Rating Required by Paragraph (a)(1)(ii)(G) of Rule 17g-7

- There is no use of any servicer or remittance report to conduct surveillance of the credit rating herewith presented.

8 The Types of Data Relied Upon for the Purpose of Determining the Credit Rating as Required by Paragraph (a)(1)(ii)(H) of Rule 17g-7

- The information posted in the below, which includes data, is used for the determination of the credit rating herewith presented.

A) Audited financial statements presented by the rating stakeholders

B) Explanations of business performance, management plans, etc. presented by the rating stakeholders

9 Overall assessment of the Quality of Information Available and Considered in Determining the Credit Rating as Required by Paragraph (a)(1)(ii)(I) of Rule 17g-7

- JCR holds its basic policies for securing the quality of information as a base of due diligence for the determination of credit ratings. The information used as a base for the determination of credit rating herewith presented satisfies such policies, which include the audit by an independent auditor, the warranty made by the issuer, the publication by the issuer, some independent media or, otherwise, JCR analyst's scrutiny, etc.
- JCR sees no particular weakness in the quality of information used for the determination of the credit rating herewith presented as compared to the information used in other cases of the credit rating for comparable issuers or ratable objects.
- If the credit rating is an Indication, please see the report for Indication.

10 Information Relating to Conflicts of Interest as Required by Paragraph (a)(1)(ii)(J) of Rule 17g-7

- JCR receives payment of compensation for the determination of the credit rating herewith presented from either one of those parties who are issuer, underwriter, depositor or sponsor.
- JCR received in the last fiscal year in the past payment of compensation from MS&AD Insurance Group Holdings, Inc. and MITSUI SUMITOMO INSURANCE COMPANY, LTD. for any kind of JCR's service other than the determination of credit rating, such as one in the ancillary business.
- JCR did not receive in the last fiscal year in the past payment of compensation from AIOI NISSAY DOWA INSURANCE COMPANY, LIMITED for any kind of JCR's service other than the determination of credit rating, such as one in the ancillary business.

11 Explanation or Measure of the Potential Volatility of the Credit Rating as Required by Paragraph (a)(1)(ii)(K) of Rule 17g-7

A) Business Bases

The credit rating is subject to alteration if there is improvement or deterioration of the issuer's business bases, since its revenue, etc. may improve or deteriorate by the change in its business management policies, clients' preferences, competitive situation, or a technological innovation. The resultant alteration of the credit rating is usually by a notch, with possibility of a few notches if and when the change in the business bases is large.

B) Financial Grounds and Asset Quality

The credit rating is subject to alteration if the issuer increases/ decreases its debt/ capital or vice versa and thereby makes its individual debt payment liability less or more bearable and its loss absorption capacity into the future decreased or increased. Also, the changes in the quality of asset under the issuer's holding may affect the credit rating, since such changes could raise or lower the likelihood of future loss of the issuer's financial grounds. The resultant alteration of the credit rating is usually by a notch, with possibility of a few notches if and when the change in the financial grounds and/ or asset quality is large.

C) Liquidity Positions

The credit rating is subject to alteration if there is a change in the issuer's financial management policy or in the relations with fund procurement sources and the change thereby makes its liquidity positions improve or deteriorate. The resultant alteration of the credit rating is usually by a notch, with possibility of a few notches if and when the change is large.

D) Related Parties' Status and Stance of Support/ Assistance for the Issuer

The credit rating is subject to alteration if there is a change in the issuer's parent company or subsidiary, guarantor or other provider of credit enhancement, or the government of the issuer's business domicile, or other related parties' own conditions and/ or position of support/ assistance for the issuer, and the change thereby makes its business bases, financial grounds and/ or liquidity positions improve or deteriorate, and/ or making the effectiveness of guarantee and other credit enhancement improve or deteriorate. The resultant alteration of the credit rating is usually a notch, with possibility of a few notches if and when the change is large.

E) Order of Seniority in Debt Payment and Non-Payment Forgiven by Contract

The credit rating is subject to alteration if there is a change in the rated debt's status in the order of seniority relative to other debts caused by the improvement/ deterioration of the issuer's financial condition. The resultant alteration of the credit rating is usually a notch, with possibility of a few notches if and when the change is large. Also, in case of the financial products for which non-payment of interest/ principal is contractually permissible, the credit rating is subject to alteration if and when the likelihood of such non-payment is projected to increase or decrease. The resultant alteration of the credit rating could be by a notch but often as much as a few notches.

F) Rise and Fall in General Economy and Markets

The credit rating is subject to alteration if there is a rise/ fall in the general economy and/ or the markets inducing the issuer's revenues/ expenses to increase/ decrease and vice versa, etc. The resultant alteration of the credit rating is usually by a notch, with possibility of a few notches if and when the change is exceptionally large.

G) Various Events

The credit rating is subject to alteration on occurrence of various events, such as change in the issuer's major shareholders, M&A and other organizational change, accident, violation of the law, litigation, legal/ regulatory change, natural disaster, etc., which are unforeseeable at the time when the credit rating is determined, causing a significant change on the issuer's business bases, financial grounds, etc. The resultant alteration of the credit rating could be by a notch but more often than not as much as a few notches.

Information on the Content of the Credit Rating, Including the Historical Performance of the Credit Rating and the Expected Probability of Default and the Expected Loss in the Event of Default as Required by Paragraph (a)(1)(ii)(L) of Rule 17g-7

- Historical records of the credit rating herewith presented are posted in the end of this paper.
- The credit rating herewith presented by JCR is its summary opinion with regard to the likelihood of given debt payment and hence not necessarily a perfect representation of such likelihood. The credit rating is not intended to estimate the probability of default or the loss on given default, either.
- Facts of the probability of default are posted as Form NRSRO Exhibit 1 on the JCR website under the URL:

<https://www.jcr.co.jp/en/service/company/regu/nrsro/>

13

Information on the Sensitivity of the Credit Rating to Assumptions Made as Required by Paragraph (a)(1)(ii)(M) of Rule 17g-7

A) Business Bases

The credit rating herewith presented could be changed if and when the assumptions made at the time of its determination turn out to be inaccurate with regard to the issuer's business bases and powers of earning or cash flow generation, etc. The resultant change of the credit rating is most likely by a notch, as JCR speculates, but possibly as much as a few notches if the development is rapid in improvement or deterioration of the issuer's business bases on some drastic change in the operational environments, etc.

B) Financial Grounds and Asset Quality

The credit rating herewith presented could be changed if and when the assumptions made at the time of its determination turn out to be inaccurate with regard to the issuer's financial grounds and asset quality. The resultant change of the credit rating is most likely by a notch, as JCR speculates, but possibly as much as a few notches if the development is rapid in improvement or deterioration of the issuer's financial grounds and/ or asset quality on some drastic change in its business bases.

C) Liquidity Risks

The credit rating herewith presented could be changed if and when the assumptions made at the time of its determination turn out to be inaccurate with regard to the issuer's liquidity positions. The resultant change of the credit rating is most likely by a notch, as JCR speculates, but possibly as much as a few notches if the development is rapid in improvement or deterioration of the issuer's liquidity positions on some drastic change in its financial management policy or relations with fund procurement sources, etc.

D) Related Parties' Status and Stance of Support/ Assistance for the Issuer

The credit rating herewith presented could be changed if and when the assumptions made at the time of its determination turn out to be inaccurate with regard to the issuer's parent company or subsidiaries, guarantor or other providers of credit enhancement, the government of the issuer's business domicile or other related parties' status and stance of support/ assistance for the issuer. The resultant change of the credit rating is most likely by a notch, as JCR speculates, but possibly as much as a few notches if there is a major change on the part of related parties, such as replacement, disappearance, some drastic improvement/ deterioration of financial grounds/ balances, etc.

E) Rise and Fall in General Economy and Markets

The credit rating herewith presented could be changed if and when the assumptions made at the time of its determination turn out to be inaccurate with regard to the prospects of general economy and markets. JCR expects the change should be most likely by a notch but could be as much as a few notches, should the economy or the markets change so greatly.

Information on the Representations, Warranties, and Enforcement Mechanisms of an Asset-backed Security as Required by Paragraph (a)(1)(ii)(N) of rule 17g-7

- The credit rating herewith presented is not for an ABS product, and hence no relevant issue.

Attestation Required by Paragraph (a)(1)(iii) of Rule 17g-7

I, Tomohiro Miyao, have responsibility to this Rating Action and to the best of my knowledge:

- A) No part of the credit rating was influenced by any other business activities.
- B) The credit rating was based solely upon the merits of the obligor, security, or money market instrument being rated.
- C) The credit rating was an independent evaluation of the credit risk of the obligor, security, or money market instrument.
